

solutions

Q Yikes! While spring cleaning my garage, I got rust stains on a white cotton shirt. How to fix?

A Rub the mark with lemon juice, sprinkle it with salt, then place the shirt outside on a sunny day, which dries.

Q I'd like to go green, carrying groceries in a cloth tote

Q A pal frequently asks to borrow cash when we go out, but never pays me back — even when I ask her. What to do?

A Be honest and say, "I need you to pay me back before I can lend you more. It would really help me out," says Susan Fitter, founder of Global Manners, an etiquette and protocol consultancy. Remember — you can always say that you don't have extra cash on you.

Q when we go out, but never pays me back — even when I ask her. What to do?

A Be honest and say, "I need you to pay me back before I can lend you more. It would really help me out," says Susan Fitter, founder of Global Manners, an etiquette and protocol consultancy. Remember — you can always say that you don't have extra cash on you.

Q moisturizer and gently but firmly swipe around nostrils to soften and remove dead skin. After five minutes, lightly dab on petroleum jelly for moisture protection.